

My vote is 25 years to life without parole for telephone solicitation. I cannot believe that any company would be dumb enough to think that I would buy anything from them after the have infuriated me.